THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY OF THE YEAR

The examen is a Jesuit practice at the end of the day, when one reviews the day's activities discerning God's presence and looking for His direction in our lives. It can help place one's emotions and experiences in a different perspective, sometimes seeing a bigger picture. Events in daily life may take on new meaning with reflection. What seemed to be a critically important encounter may not have been so critical, whereas a small gesture might become more profound upon reflection.

In today's gospel, the disciples want to know when the end of the world is coming. What signs will they be able to read to discern this important time? Jesus responds with a number of various elements that each generation since has interpreted to be fulfilled in their own time and place.

But perhaps we might experience something of the examen and reflect on the events in our own lives to see a bigger picture. Perhaps there is more meaning and more of God's activity in our daily coming and going that we imagine. While it could be more exciting to be on the hunt for clues to Jesus' return, in actuality, nobody knows when that will be! But God is present with us here and now, not only in the apocalyptic future. Let us discern His presence in the quotidian mystery of daily activity, the ebb and flow of our emotions, our existence, and our dying and rising to newness of life.
